

WHEREAS, The remarkable life of Mr. Julian Gray, devoted husband of the lovely Geneva Gray and loving father of Damian Gray, Julian “Scotty” Gray, Julia Nicole Gray Jason, and Dr. Karen Gray Gomez, is being celebrated today by his beloved family and his many friends and colleagues; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Julian Gray’s name is well known in the community and has always been associated with his love for children, his dedication to quality education, and with honesty in dealing with others; and

WHEREAS, Julian Gray prepared well for his work, graduating from Grambling State University with a Master’s Degree while also being an active member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Julian Gray had an outstanding career - serving as a teacher, Principal of Carroll High School, Director of Child Welfare, Assistant Superintendent and Interim Superintendent with the Monroe City School System - and became known as a man who stood up for his principles and cared deeply about the proper preparation of young people for their futures; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Julian Gray passed from this earth on October 5, 2017, but his memory will always be treasured by his family and friends, and his example will live on to light the paths of those who so benefited from his care and devotion to duty.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JAMES E. MAYO, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF MONROE, LOUISIANA, on behalf of the Monroe City Council and our citizens, deem it an honor and a privilege to hereby dedicate this day, Saturday, October 14, 2017, to the memory of

Mr. Julian Gray

